Heading of the contribution

Title	Title of article in small caps
Author	of Name and Surname* * Academic affiliation. For example: Full Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Bari Aldo Moro
Abstract (ITA)	Abstract of up to 1000 characters in Italian, in Baskerville, 10 point, line spacing 1, justified.
Abstract (ENG)	Abstract of up to 1000 characters in English, in Baskerville, 10 point, line spacing 1, justified.
Parole chiave	Three keywords in Italian, separated by comma.
Keywords	Three keywords in English, separated by comma.
Table of contents	1. Title in small caps; 2. Title of second paragraph; 3. Title of third paragraph...

Body of the text

First paragraph: Baskerville 12 bold, standard non italics, 0.70 return.

Any sub-paragraphs: Baskerville, 12, bold, standard non italics, 0.70 return. The rules for the body of the text are the same.

The body of the text should be written in Baskerville, 12 point, 1.15 line spacing. Foreign language expressions and quotations should be given in italics; in the case of quotations, quotation marks should be used. For example:

> «the right to make or unmake any law whatever; and further, that no person or body is recognized by the law of England as having a right to override or set aside the legislation of Parliament».

Bibliographical notes

Journal articles

A. Torre, Una Costituzione sotto stress. Riflessioni sul referendum scozzese del 18 settembre 2014, in Rivista AIC, n. 2, 2017, p. 4.

In the case of foreign journals, citations should as much as possible conform to this model. It is possible to add the volume. For example:

B.D. Farrer, J.N. Zingher, An Analysis of the Group Bases of British Politics: 1983-2019, in Parliamentary Affairs, vol. 76, n. 4, 2023, pp. 773-797.

Contributions in volumes

A. Torre, Una costituzione sotto stress. Riflessioni sul referendum scozzese del 18 settembre 2014, in Id. (a cura di), Il Regno è ancora Unito? Saggi e commenti sul referendum scozzese del 18 settembre 2014, Bologna, Maggioli, 2016, pp. 9-60.

When the author of the cited contribution and the editor match, use Id. In the case of citing contributions in foreign volumes, use ed. (in case of single editor) or eds. (in case of multiple editors). For example:

R. Michaels, The Functional Method of Comparative Law, in M. Reimann, R. Zimmermann (eds.), The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law, Oxford, Oxford University Press, 2019, pp. 345-389.

Repeated citations

In the case of repeating the citation of the same article or volume, if the author's only work is cited: R. Michaels, op. cit., with possible citation of the specific page, or, if there are several works by the same author cited, R. Michaels, The Functional, cit., with possible citation of the specific page. The same applies in the case of volumes. For example: A.V. Dicey, op. cit., or A.V. Dicey, An Introduction, cit., with possible indication of the specific page.
